REGULATIONS REGARDING THE METHOD OF ELECTION BY SINGLE TRANSFERABLE VOTE (MADE BY THE HON'BLE SPEAKER UNDER RULE 274 OF THE RULES OF PROCEDURE AND CONDUCT OF BUSINESS OF THE HIMACHAL PRADESH LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY, 1964)

(a) by a figure not following consecutively after some other figure on the ballot paper, or

(b) by two or more figures.

(c) "First preference" means the candidate against whose name the figure 1 appears on a ballot paper; "Second preference" the candidate against whose name the figure 2 appears; "Third preference" the candidate against whose name the figure 3 appears, and so on.

(d) "Original vote" in regard to any candidate means the vote derived from a ballot paper on which a first preference is recorded for such candidate.

(e) "Quota" means the lowest value of votes sufficient to secure the return of a candidate.

(f) "Secretary" means the Secretary of the Assembly and includes any person performing the duties of the Secretary.

(g) "Surplus" means the number by which the value of the votes of any candidate, original and transferred, exceeds the quota.

(i) "Unexhausted paper" means a ballot paper on which a further preference is recorded for a continuing candidate.

2. (1) The Speaker shall fix dates and times for (i) receipts of nomination papers of candidates for election, (ii) scrutiny of nomination papers, (iii) withdrawal of candidature and (iv) holding of election, if necessary, and the Secretary shall communicate the dates and times so fixed to each member of the Assembly.

(2) Nominations shall be in writing addressed to the Secretary. Nomination papers shall be delivered to the Secretary or sent to him by registered post. Nomination papers which are received by the Secretary after the time fixed for receipt of such papers shall be rejected.

(3) Every nomination paper shall be subscribed by two members of the Assembly as proposer and seconder and shall state that the proposer has ascertained that the candidate shall serve on the Committee or the body for which he is nominated. No candidate shall sign as proposer or seconder a nomination paper on which his own name appears, nor shall any one member propose or second a number of candidates in excess of the number of vacancies.

(4) The Secretary shall at the time fixed for scrutiny of nominations examine the nominations paper in the presence of such members as may be in attendance, and shall reject all nominations which have not been duly made. If any dispute arises as to the validity of a nomination, the question shall be referred to the Speaker whose decision shall be final.

3. As soon as may be after the scrutiny of nomination papers the Secretary shall make a return to the Speaker showing the names of the candidates who have been duly nominated. The names of such candidates shall be announced by the Speaker to the Assembly or shall be communicated to the members, and on such announcement or communication being made, it shall be permissible for any nominee, by statement made before the Assembly or by writing to the Secretary within the time prescribed to withdraw his name from election.

4. If the number of candidates who have been duly nominated, minus withdrawals, if any, under regulations 3, is less than the number of vacancies to be filled, the Speaker shall call for further nominations in the manner prescribed in regulation 2.

5. If the number of nominations received on the original date, or on such further date (if any) as may be fixed, less withdrawals, if any, under regulation 3, is equal to the number of vacancies to be filled, the Speaker shall declare the candidates so nominated to be duly elected.

6. If the number of candidates duly nominated as aforesaid, less withdrawals, if any, under regulation 3, exceeds the number of vacancies, to be filled, an election in the manner prescribed in these regulations shall be held on the date fixed under regulation 2(1).

7. If the Assembly is not sitting at the time, the Speaker may, if he considers it necessary or expedient to do so, allow the election to be held by postal ballot. If this course is adopted, the Secretary shall inform the members, by letter addressed to them and sent under registered cover of the dates and times fixed under regulation 2(1) and shall also send to every member a nomination form for the proposed election and an envelope addressed to himself as Returning Officer for the return of the nomination paper. If the number of valid nominations, received within the time prescribed, is in excess of the number of seats for which the election is to be held, the Secretary shall send to each member a voting paper under a registered cover and shall also send along with the voting paper an envelope addressed, to himself as Returning Officer. The member may record his vote either by handing over the voting paper personally to the Secretary or by sending it to him by post in the envelope enclosed with the voting paper. The voting paper must reach the Secretary within the time fixed for the purpose. Voting papers received later will not be counted. Regulations 14, 15 and 16 shall not apply to such an election.

8. The Secretary shall act as Returning Officer and shall, subject to these regulations, do all things necessary for the conduct of the election.

9. The Returning Officer shall make a return to the Speaker showing the names of the members who have been duly elected. If the Assembly is sitting at the time the Speaker shall announce the names of such members in the Assembly; if it is not sitting at the time, the Secretary shall communicate the names of such members to every member of the Assembly.

10. The Secretary shall place the nomination and the ballot papers in a sealed packet which shall be reserved for a period of one year.

11. The voting shall be by ballot. Every ballot paper shall contain the names of all the candidates, duly nominated for election printed in alphabetical order in the form attached to these regulations.

12. The Returning Officer shall maintain a list of the members of the Assembly and shall give to each member a serial number in the list.

13. Each member shall vote in person and no vote by proxy shall be permitted.

14. When a member presents himself to vote, the Returning Officer shall enter the serial number opposite his name in the list maintained under regulation 12 on the counterfoil of a ballot paper. He shall then detach the ballot paper from the counterfoil and shall hand it over to the member. He shall at the same time make a mark against the members' name in the aforesaid list. This mark will indicate that the member has received a ballot paper but must not show the number of the ballot paper which he has received.

15. When the member has received a ballot paper, he shall take it to a place screened from observation which shall be provided for the purpose, and shall there signify in the manner provided by regulation 17 for whom he desires to vote. The member shall then fold the ballot paper and shall drop it in the ballot box placed in front of the Returning Officer.

16. If a member inadvertently spoils a ballot paper, he may return it to the Returning Officer, who shall, if satisfied of such inadvertence, give him another paper and retain the spoiled paper, and this spoiled paper shall be immediately cancelled and the fact of such cancellation shall be noted upon the counterfoil.

17. Every member shall have one vote only. A member in giving his vote—

(a) must place on his ballot paper the figure 1 in the square opposite the name of the candidates for whom he votes;

(b) may in addition place on his ballot paper the figure 2 or the figures 2 and 3, or 2, 3 and 4, and so on in the squares opposite the names of other candidates in the order of his preference.

18. A ballot paper shall be invalid—

(a) upon which a member signs his name or writes any word, or makes any mark by which it becomes recognizable; or

(b) which is not on the form provided by the Returning Officer; or

(c) on which the figure 1 is not marked; or

(d) on which the figure 1 is set opposite the name of more than one candidate; or

(e) on which the figure 1 and some other figures are set opposite the name of the same candidate; or

(f) which is unmarked or void for uncertainty.

19. The Returning Officer shall in carrying out these regulations—

(a) disregard all fraction;

(b) ignore all preferences recorded for candidates already elected or excluded from the poll.

20. As soon as may be after the time fixed for the recording of votes the Returning Officer shall examine the ballot papers, and after rejecting any invalid ballot papers shall divide the remaining papers into parcels according to the first preferences recorded for each candidate. He shall then count the number of papers in each parcel.

21. For the purpose of facilitating the processes prescribed by these regulations each ballot paper shall be deemed to be of the value of one hundred.

22. The Returning Officer shall then add together the values of the papers in all the parcels and divide the total by a number exceeding by one the number of vacancies to be filled, and add one to the quotient. The number then obtained is the number sufficient to secure the return of a candidate, and is herein called the "quota".

23. If at any time under these regulations a number of candidates equal to the number of persons to be elected has obtained the quota such candidates shall be treated as elected and no further proceedings shall be taken.

24. (1) Every candidate the value of whose parcel, on the first preferences being counted, is equal to or greater than the quota, shall be declared elected.

(2) If the value of the papers in any such parcel is equal to the quota, the paper shall be set aside as finally dealt with.

(3) If the value of the papers in any such parcel is greater than the quota, the surplus shall be transferred to the continuing candidates indicated on the ballot papers as next in the order of the voters preference, in the manner prescribed in the following regulation.

25. (1) If and whenever as the results of any operation prescribed by these regulations a candidate has any surplus, that surplus shall be transferred in accordance with the provisions of this regulation.

(2) If more than one candidate has a surplus, the largest surplus shall be dealt with first and the others in order of magnitude; provided that every surplus arising on the first count of votes shall be dealt with before these arising on the second count, and soon.

(3) Where two or more surpluses are equal, the Returning Officer shall decide according to the terms of regulation 30 which shall be first dealt with.

(4) (a) If the surplus of any candidate to be transferred arise from original votes only, the Returning Officer shall examine all the papers in the parcel belonging to the candidate whose surplus is to be transferred and divide the unexhausted papers into sub-parcels according to the next preferences recorded thereon. He shall also make a separate sub-parcel of the exhausted papers.

(b) He shall ascertain the value of the papers in each sub-parcel and of all the unexhausted papers.

(c) If the value of unexhausted papers is equal to or less than the surplus, he shall transfer all the unexhausted papers at the value at which they were received by the candidate whose surplus is being transferred.

(d) If the value of the unexhausted papers is greater than the surplus, he shall transfer the sub-parcels of unexhausted papers and the value at which each paper shall be transferred shall be ascertained by dividing the surplus by the total number of unexhausted paper.

(5) If the surplus of any candidate to be transferred arises from transferred as well as original votes, the Returning Officer shall re-examine all the papers in the sub-parcel last transferred to the candidate and divide the unexhausted papers into sub-parcels according to the next preferences recorded thereon. He shall thereupon deal with the sub-parcels in the same manner as is provided in the case of sub-parcels referred to in the last preceding sub-section.

(6) The papers transferred to each candidate shall be added in the form of a sub-parcel to the papers already belonging to such candidate.

(7) All papers in the parcel or sub-parcels of an elected candidate not transferred under this regulation shall be set aside as finally dealt with.
